"Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself".

John Dewey

The Vice-Chancellor Prof. Richard Mibey, a section of the University Management, Deans, Campus Librarian & Director braved the Chilly Nairobi Morning on the 18th of October 2014 to address the new students at Nairobi Campus.

Getting Inspiration from the Karate Club which was one of the performing acts of the day, The Vice Chancellor categorically stated that it was an Honor to be of service to the students as the core mandate of the institution was to nature disciplined and creative students to be Employers rather than employees. A section of the University management reiterated the same sentiments creating a sense of purpose amongst both the staff and the new students as they embark on a journey in Moi University-Nairobi Campus.

The event came to a close at 1130hrs with the beautiful Campus Choir bidding farewell to all the invited Guests.

"Education is not preparation for life; education is life itself".
