

Ivey Business School visits Moi University

Vice Chancellor Prof. Isaac Kosgei (Seated Center) with a delegation from Ivey Business School and some of Moi University's Senior Staff

Moi University received a delegation from Ivey Business School, Canada, on Tuesday September 18, 2018, at the Main Campus. The delegation was led by Dr. Lyn Purdy, Associate Dean Ivey Business School and Dr. Nicole Haggerty.

The visitors were received by Moi University Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Isaac S. Kosgey. Others present were Deputy Vice Chancellor, Student Affairs, Prof. Nathan Ogechi, Acting Deputy Vice Chancellor, Finance, Prof. Daniel Tarus, Acting Finance Officer, Mr. Joshua Koech, Acting Principal, Odera Akang'o Campus College, Prof. Phillip Nyangweso, and Director, International Programmes, Linkages and Alumni, Dr. Charles Lagat.

The team held discussions with Heads of Departments from the School of Business and Economics together with the School's Associate Dean, Dr. Joyce Komen.

The Heads of Department present were Dr. Cheboi Yegon, Accounting and Finance, Dr. Patrick Limo, Management Science, Dr. Kefa Chepkwony, Entrepreneurship Studies, Dr. Joel Chepkwony, Marketing and Logistics, Dr. Stanley Kipsang, Development Studies and Dr. Joash Ogolla Ogada, Entrepreneurship.

The visit was a follow up on the collaboration that has existed between the two Institutions since 2012. Through the collaboration, there has been exchange of students between the two Universities. Currently, one student, Mr. Edwin Kimitei, is finalizing on his PhD at Ivey Business School.