

Parliamentary Committee on Broadcasting and Library tours Moi University

Select Committee on Parliamentary Broadcasting and Library, led by Hon. Liza Chelule (Right) at Margaret Thatcher Library

The Select Committee on Parliamentary Broadcasting and Library toured Moi University on Friday August 17, 2018 on a benchmarking mission aimed at sharing experiences and learning through a comparative study to appreciate advances made in the library services of Moi University's Margret Thatcher Library.

The delegation led by Nakuru Women Representative, Hon. Liza Chelule, also focused on familiarizing itself with the available Library and Research facilities as well as the services offered by the Margret Thatcher Library.

Also notable in the delegation was Mwingi North MP, Eng. John Munuve, an alumnus of Moi University, who pursued Civil and Structural Engineering.

The Committee members were hosted by Prof. Daniel Tarus, Acting Deputy Vice Chancellor in charge of Finance on behalf of the Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Isaac Kosgey.

Prof. Isaac Kimengi, Deputy Vice Chancellor in charge of Academics, Research and Extension was among the senior University officers that accompanied the delegation in the tour of the Margaret Thatcher Library.

They were taken around the Library by Acting University Librarian, Mr. Solomon Mutai.